

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from Team GIEN (GLOBAL INCLUSIVE EDUCATION NETWORK)!

INTRODUCTION

The team GIEN (GLOBAL INCLUSIVE EDUCATION NETWORK) and the Centre for Disability Studies and Action, School of Social Work, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai (TISS, Mumbai) and the Brotherhood, New Delhi are organizing the 9th online National Conference on Inclusive Education from 25-27 November 2021. The theme is 'IMPACT OF COVID 19 ON DIFFERENT STAKEHOLDERS IN INCLUSIVE EDUCATION SETTING.'

Online teaching/learning has become the norm during the pandemic. While not having been trained to combat the difficulties and challenges of online education, teachers across India have managed; but with multiple challenges and varying degrees of success.

There have been considerable changes in communication between teachers and students and the realization of the teaching-learning process

Families have also become engaged and accountable in the education of their children to some extent. Along with the technological and logistical challenges, there have been adverse psychological consequences of online learning too.

The purpose of organizing the 9th Online National Conference in Inclusive Education Setting-2021 is to invite new experiences and insights and new answers to old and new educational questions. Defining the problem is half the solution, so raising the right questions is just as important as providing answers.
